

DTI 2008-2009 Schedule

Disciple Training Institute

Fall—October 9, 2008 to November 20, 2008

BASIC FOUNDATIONS:

Following Jesus, taught by David Smalley & Matt Weimann

The Apostle John has given us a first hand account of the Jesus' life on earth in his gospel. Using this primary source document the class will seek to better know and understand the person of Jesus by investigating the questions...

- How did Jesus relate to people and God?
- What did He teach?
- What was His mission?
- What does He ask me to do?

Come join us as we delve into to Gospel of John to gain a clearer picture of Christ.

BETTER EQUIPPED:

Managing Conflict God's Way, Part I, taught by Larry & Ann Berley

In this first of a two-part course, you will learn about biblical peacemaking and how to use God's word to prepare your heart and mind to approach conflict. Each session will revolve around a key principle outlined in a 25-minute video and subsequent discussion from a workbook. Although group discussions and prayer will be confidential, any sharing about personal conflicts would totally be your choice.

Two Ways to Live, taught by Ed LeNormand and Chuck Hicks

Two Ways To Live: Know and Share the Gospel is a seven-week course that aims to equip you:

- With a clear understanding and knowledge of the gospel of Jesus Christ; and
- With the basic skills of how to explain that gospel to others in your own words.

This course offers a simple and effective method to share your faith with others in this post-modern society.

Managing Money God's Way, taught by Eric Mello & Gerry Bennett

This course will draw you closer to God as we learn and apply the bible to financial management. Come and discover the biblical blueprint for handling money and experience the peace of knowing and applying these timeless principles. The course will include homework, group discussion and video training. Biblical stewardship is a lifetime process so this course is for any Christian.
