A morning for women to come together to celebrate what Christmas is really all about

The Event

Join us on December 12th for a wonderful event that has become tradition for the women of South Shore Baptist Church.

We begin with a delicious hot breakfast and then follow that with Christmas carol singing and a message about the real meaning of Christmas. It's a great time to connect with other women and to hear about the Christmas gift of God's bountiful grace and love.

After the breakfast and message, you can join other women in an optional craft activity class (see next page for photos and descriptions). Give the craft as a gift or keep it for yourself!

The Speaker

Sue Bush, "Redeeming Christmas"

Sue has lived in Hingham for twenty years and has been a member of SSBC for nearly that long. She enjoys hosting a woman's Bible study in her home and being a Deacon. She is active in the community, serving on a number of boards, and has an interior design business. Her interests and hobbies include gardening, local history, reading, and rowing. She and her husband Jamie have grown children -- daughter Sarah, son-in-law Drake, and son Sam-- and a poodle named Louie.
