

Vacation Bible School Prayer Guide

- The directors and volunteers in leadership positions. Praise for all the footwork that has been done and that God will inhabit our plans.
- Volunteers will enjoy fellowship and make new friendships this week of ministering together.
- Families and children who are new to our program will feel the love of Jesus and be attracted to Him.
- Our missions project will be clearly presented and the children will come to understand the importance of reaching out with mercy as Jesus Himself did.
- Our Evening Family Celebration will find us with a full house and the joy of the Lord will be evident as we meet.
- Our music will be warm, enthusiastic praise to delight the Lord each day.
- Children will respond to the gospel message and grow in knowledge of Him and His word.
- For parents who will be trying to hold households together and be out every morning early.
- Special blessing for those who took the week off work to volunteer at VBS.
- For kindergarteners and pre-school children who have their own special program.
- For the toddlers and infants who make the four hour stretch and for their caregivers. Lord, may even the littlest sense our love.
- Praise for our volunteers, funds, and supplies of every need as well as our facility itself.
- Good weather, good health, energy to go around, safety at play and many answers to prayer.
- Our pastors and their support of VBS.
